Allshred Services celebrates 20 years in business – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Maumee, OH – January 13, 2009. Allshred Services is celebrating 20 years in business. Over the last 20 years Allshred has grown to become the largest independent shredding company in the country and is proud to operate from one of the most secure document destruction facilities in the United States. “‘Security and Service’ is our top priority. It always has been. We have grown to what we are today because our clients know their material is in the most trusted hands possible,” comment Thomas Huth, Senior Vice President of Operations.

Allshred first earned the prestigious NAID Certification in June 2002 and has obtained NAID certification every year since. In 2005, Allshred built a 46,000 square foot shredding facility, which has been described as the Fort Knox of the shredding industry. Also in 2005, Willie Geiser, President and CEO of Allshred Services, received the Central Great Lakes Region Entrepreneur of the Year for 2005 award from Ernst & Young, and the NAID President’s Award. In 2006, Geiser was named the NAID Member of the Year. In 2007 and 2008, Allshred was named one of the top 5,000 fastest growing companies in the United States by Inc. 5000. Willie Geiser remarked, “Over the last 20 years Allshred has achieved numerous accomplishments of which we are very proud. However, our greatest successes are the lasting relationships we have built with our customers, our employees and our community. We understand that it is these relationships that have made us successful and for that we are thankful and humbled.”
